

THE HEART OF NATURE

The cave is located within the boundaries of Küre Mountains National Park, and is near Yamanlar Köyü which is 36 km northeast of Pınarbaşı. The length is 858 meters and the depth is 250 meters. There is a village ruins in the entrance which is thought to be from Byzantium Period. There is a water reservoir on the right flat road. This reservoir was ruined throughout the years. This area has rooms and stalactites hence called Chandelier Salon. When the path from the left is taken, 250 meters of depth can be observed and some marks of human residence from 2000 BC can be seen.

The last two hours of the walk within the cave is in a humid, untouched forest with pretty vertical slopes. However, the entrance of the cave can be reached with the condition of getting a guide, and it is huge. Ilgarini is the 4th deepest cave of Turkey.
